I RECOMMEND THE ARTICLE / I DO NOT RECOMMEND THE ARTICLE

to be published in "Issues in Early Education".

Justification for the assessment and suggestions for corrections

1. To what extent are the problems addressed in the text and the theses put forward in it original? What elements are worth improving?
2. To what extent has the current scientific knowledge been used in the article? Which issues are particularly topical or approached in an innovative way, and which need to be supplemented or improved?
3. What is the research or theoretical value of an article? Which aspects draw special attention and which require additional argumentation?
4. Are the presentation of the content and the structure of the text clear and consistent? What elements are worth improving?
5. Is the methodological concept substantively justified and transparent? Are the method of conducting the analyses and the inference adequate to the purpose of the research and the methodological assumptions adopted? What elements need to be refined?
6. Are the title of the article and the choice of keywords accurate? What changes or additions are worth considering?
7. Is the selection of literature well thought out and appropriate to the issues addressed in the article? Does the bibliography include fundamental items and the most recent approaches to the issues presented in the text?
8. Is the subject matter of the article consistent with the PWE profile? If not completely, to what extent does it differ from it?
